

I don't think it is fair to place the burden/cost/responsibility of proving innocence on us, the broadcasters. If someone has a complaint about indecency or other over-the-air issue they should be responsible for submitting proof of their allegations against the Station, Therefore they should be recording either 16 or 24 hours a day. Isn't everybody presumed innocent until proven guilty in a Court of Law?